loss of many thousand dollars through a fire, has refurnished and remodeled the entire place at an enormous expense, and the mansion is now a palace fit for kings.

Within the great walls of this mansion will be found the work of great artists from Europe and America. Many articles from various Expositions will also be seen, and curios galore.

NOWHERE IN this country will you find a more complete and thorough sporting house than the Arlington.

Absolutely and unquestionably the most decorative and costly fitted-out sporting palace ever placed before the American public.

The wonderful originality of everything that goes to fit out a mansion makes it the most attractive ever seen in this or the old country.

PREFACE

"Honi Soit Qui Mal y Pense."

HIS Directory and Guide of the Sporting District has been before the people on many occasions, and has proven its authority to what is doing in the "Queer Zone."

Everybody who knows to-day from yesterday will say that the Blue Book is the right book for the right people.

WHY NEW ORLEANS SHOULD HAVE THIS DIRECTORY

First—Because it is the only district of its kind in the States set aside for the fast women by law.

Second—Because it puts the stranger on a proper and safe path as to where he may go and be free from "Hold Ups," and any other game usually practiced upon the stranger.

Third—It regulates the women so that they may live in one district to themselves instead of being scattered over the city.

THIS BOOK MUST NOT BE MAILED

TO know the right from the wrong, to be sure of yourself, go through this little book and read it carefully, and then when you visit Storyville you will know the best places to spend your money and time, as all the BEST houses are advertised. Read all the "ads."

The book contains nothing but Facts, and is of the greatest value to strangers when in this part of the city. The Directory will be found alphabetically, under the heading "White" and "Colored," from alpha to omega. The names in capitals are landladies only.

You will find the boundry of the Tenderloin District or Storyville: North side Iberville Street to South side St. Louis, and East side North Basin to West side North Robertson Streets.

This is the boundry in which the women are compelled to live according to law.

TENTH EDITION.

Miss Hilma Burt

THIS palatial home was at one time the residence of Flo. Meeker, who was noted for keeping one of the best equipped places of its kind in this section of the States.

Miss Burt, while very young, is of a type that pleases most men of today—the witty, pretty and natty—a lady of fashion.

Her managerial possibilities are phenomenal to say the least, and her success here has proven itself beyond a doubt.

Miss Burt has been with us but a short while but has won all hearts. Her palace is second to none. It is good for one who loves the beautiful to visit Miss Burt's handsome palace. There are no words for her ladies—one can only realize the grandeur of feminine beauty and artistic settings after an hour or so in the palace of Helma Burt.

Miss Burt, aside from having two handsome homes here, has one in St. Louis and one in Kansas City, Mo., where, it is said, she is as popular as in New Orleans.

Don't forget to converse with her, as she is very clever, jolly and cultured.

Margaret Bradford

WHILE still young in years, has nevertheless proven herself a grand woman, and has also proven a grand success as madam of her grand "chateau."

An aristocrat once said: "If it were within my power to name Kings and Queens, I would certainly go out of my way to bestow the title of "Queen of Smile" on Miss Bradford."

Miss Bradford is one of the few woman who can say she has friends who are friends indeed, and who are with her in all her moods.

Her "Chateau" is grandly equipped, and is lacking in nothing, and with her annex, is one of the largest in the district.

Pretty women, good time and sociability has been adopted as the motto of Miss Bradford's new and costly home.
