PREFACE

“Don't be a noax all”

It's bad know to much sometimes; there is not a day to pass that some wise guy doesnot go to the “high brush”with his bad information on all he knows about Race Horses.

It's the same way with the fast women of the tenderloin, while they are not class-ed as bangtails, some of 'em hang a new record out every day—Fast!! Well 'eh! wish you'd hush.

You'll hear some wise guys tell his girl not to this or that—now do you think they listen? If he'd said nothing she might have listened, but he “knew all.”

Now it's the same way with people who try to tell you the best place to go to spend your money (not his.)

This book is on it's fourth year and is noted for it's fairness as a directory for strangers who see fit to visit the tenderloin.

MISS JOSIE ARLINGTON

225 BASIN STREET

Absolutely and unquestionably the most decorative and costly fitted out sporting palace ever placed before the American public anywhere. The wonderful originality of everything that goes to fit out a Mansion makes it the most attractive ever seen.

HER LADIES ARE:

Marian Coleman
Freda Dunlap
Mamie Price
Minnie White
Frankee Sawyer
Mabel Gray
Norma Wheatley
Norma Mason

Jean Carlton
Ollie Russell
Lillian Connor
Marie Barrett
Bessie Snow

This Book--Not Mailable

To know a thing or two and know it direct, go through this little book and read it carefully and then when you go on a "lark" you'll know "who is who" and the best place to spend your time and money.

Read all the "Ads", as all the best houses are advertised and are known as the "Cream of Society."

One star (*) at the end of a name indicates Sporting House; two stars () denotes an Assignment House; Names in Capitals are Landladies; "W" in front of name means White; "Oct." Octoroon; "C" stands for colored.

The contents of this book are facts and not dreams from a "hop joint."

You will now find the boundary of the Tenderloin District, commonly called Anderson County or Storyville: North side Customhouse St. to South side St. Louis and East side N. Basin to West side N. Robertson Sts.

This is the boundary in which the lewd women are compelled to live according to law.

Yours,

LITTLE WILLIE.

MISS
OLLIE NICHOLLS

221 BASIN STREET

Needs but little introduction, as she is known far and near for her social and clever ways.

It has been Ollie's mark in life to make friends and keep them.

She also has a most worthy name of being the mistress over one of the foremost sporting places in the Tenderloin District, where swell men can be socially entertained by a clever array of beautiful ladies who know how to entertain the most tedious gentleman

Her ladies are:

Corinne Vance,
Nellie Levand,
Ruth Gordon,
Gertrude Vancleave,
Irene Byrnes,
Mable Shaw,
Sadie McLain.

MISS
GRACE SIMPSON

223 N. BASIN STREET

Deserves great credit for the manner in which she conducts her house. There are few women who stand better with the swell people than Grace, who has always kept one of the best and most refined houses in which a private man may be entertained by lots of handsome and well cultivated ladies. A visit once will mean a long remembrance and friendship.

MISS FLO MEEKER

211 N. BASIN, NEAR CUSTOMHOUSE ST

Has without doubt one of the most exquisitely furnished establishments in Storyville. Bon vivants and connoisseurs pronounce her mansion the Acme of Perfection. Her furniture and fittings were all made to order from her own designs; many of the articles in her domicile, such as painting and cut glasses came from the late Paris Exposition. Her new mirror dance hall is the talk of the town—see it.

Don't fail to form Miss Meeker's acquaintance, she is clever and her ladies are of a like disposition.

Their names are :

Beuhler Wilson,
Lula Anderson,
Leona Patton,

FLORENCE MANTLEY

215 333 BASIN STREET

Has always been a head-liner among those who keep first-class octoroons. She also has the distinction of being the only Singer of Opera in the tenderloin. She has had offers after offers to leave her present business and take the stage but her vast business has kept her among her friends.

Any person out for fun among a lot of pretty creole damsels, here is the place to have it.

Remember the number—215 Basin

Her ladies are:

Augie Osella

Ida Wren

Alice Hart

Loretta

Blanche Irwin

Vera Pedros

And three handsome girls who ask that their name be kept private.

Don't forget to call on FLORENCE.

LULU WHITE

CORNER BASIN AND BIENVILLE STS.

Much has been said and written locally and abroad about this distinguished personage, but no one could ever be made more satisfied until they have met her and her array of beautiful Southern octoroons.

Aside from her handsome women her mansion possesses some of the most costly oil paintings in the Southern country. Her mirror parlor is also a dream.

There's always something new at Lulu White's that will interest you. "Good time" her motto.

The following are her Belles :

Corinne Valery,
Thelma Seegar,
Sadie Reed,
Belle Liard,
Emma Hayes,
Cleo Marcellus,
Flora Lee Collins,
Celona Meagee,
Lillian Russell,
Carrie Kline,
Stella Mayo.

Aside from the above named women, there are ten entertainers who get paid to do nothing but singing and dancing.

If seeing is believing, then you can judge for yourself
the cost Miss Arlington laid out on her Mansion

WILLIE V. PIAZZA

315 BASIN ST.

Is one place in the Tenderloin District you can't very well afford to "pass up". She has without doubt the most handsome and intelligent octoroons in the United States.

You should see them; they are all cultivated entertainers.

If there is anything new in the singing and dancing line that you'd like to see while in Storyville, Willie Piazza's is the place to visit. Don't forget the No. 315.

Here are a few of her ladies :

...PARISIAN DANCE...

As a dancer she has no equal and is known the world over as the Parisian Muscle dancer of the age. Her first appearance in this country was on the Midway at Chicago during the World's Fair. She also appeared on the public stage all over America.

Bertha also has one of the coziest lot of creole girls in the Tenderloin who are also clever at dancing and singing. Remember if you pass up Bertha Golden's house, you are way back in life.

Here are her Creole Belles ;
