PREFACE

"Honi Soit Qui Mal y Pense"

THIS Directory and Guide of the Sporting District has been before the people on many occasions, and has proven its authority to what is doing in the "Queer Zone."

Everybody who knows to-day from yesterday will say that the Blue Book is the right book for the right people.

WHY NEW ORLEANS SHOULD HAVE THIS DIRECTORY

First—Because it is the only district of its kind in the States set aside for the fast women by law.

Second—Because it puts the stranger on a proper and safe path as to where he may go and be free from "Hold-ups," and any other game usually practiced upon the stranger.

Third—It regulates the women so that they may live in one district to themselves instead of being scattered over the city.

THIS BOOK MUST NOT BE MAILED

TO know the right from the wrong, to be sure of yourself, go through this little book and read it carefully, and then when you visit Storyville you will know the best places to spend your money and time, as all the BEST houses are advertised. Read all the "ads."

The book contains nothing but Facts, and is of the greatest value to strangers when in this part of the city. The Directory will be found alphabetically, under the headings "White" and "Colored," from alpha to omega. The names in capitals are landladies only.

You will find the boundary of the Tenderloin District, or Storyville: North side Iberville Street to south side St. Louis, and east side North Basin to west side North Robertson Streets.

This is the boundary in which the women are compelled to live according to law.

THE ARLINGTON

NOWHERE IN this country will you find a more complete and thorough sporting house than the ARLINGTON

Absolutely and unquestionably the most decorative and costly fitted out sporting palace ever placed before the American public.

The wonderful originality of everything that goes to fit out a mansion makes it the most attractive ever seen in this or the old country.

Miss Arlington, after suffering a loss of many thousand dollars through a fire, has refurnished and remodeled the entire place at an enormous expense, and the mansion is now a palace fit for a king.

Within the great walls of this mansion will be found the work of great artists from Europe and America. Many articles from various expositions will also be seen, and curios galore.

Miss Hilma Burt

This palatial home was at one time the residence of Flo. Meeker, who was noted for keeping one of the best equipped places of its kind in this section of the States.

Miss Burt, while very young, is of a type that pleases most men of today—the witty, pretty and natty—a lady of fashion. Her managerial possibilities are phenomenal to say the least, and her success here has proven itself beyond a doubt.

Miss Burt has been with us but a short while but has won all hearts. Her palace is second to none. It is good for one who loves the beautiful to visit Miss Burt's handsome ladies—one can only realize the palace. There are no words for her grandeur of feminine beauty and artistic settings after an hour or so in the palace of Hilma Burt.

Miss Burt, aside from having two handsome homes here, has one in St. Louis and one in Kansas City, Mo., where, it is said, she is as popular as in New Orleans.

Miss Burt has an orchestra in her ballroom that should be heard—all talent.

Miss Minnie White

MISS WHITE is one of the finest landladies in the District, known to all as a prince of good fellows, always ready to receive you with a smile and pleasant greeting, and counts her friends by scores. She has surrounded herself with a bevy of charming girls, each one a star, who are always willing to meet you half way and make you feel that you are welcome. Once you meet them, return you surely will. Good-fellowship is the secret of Miss Minnie's success.

Miss White has recently added to her array of beautiful women some lively women, entire strangers from the far Northwest, andn ququeens among queens they are.

Miss May Evans

Miss Evans is one woman among the fair sex who is regarded as an all-round jolly good fellow, and one who is always laughing and making all those around her do likewise.

While nothing is too good for May, she is admired and befriended by all who come in contact with her.

May recently erected a handsome mansion in North Franklin Street, that would be beautiful on Fifth Avenue, New York, or on one of the boulevards about Chicago or Philadelphia. See for yourself.

May has the honor of keeping one of the quietest establishments in the city, where beautiful women, good wine and sweet music reign supreme.

What more can a person expect? Just think of it! "Pretty women, wine and song."

In the palace of a king one could not expect more.

The signal of "May's" mansion is: "Let's all live and enjoy life while we can."

"Gypsy" Shaffer

You may travel from one end of this continent to the other, but to find another good fellow as game as "Gip" will almost be an impossibility. To make such an assertion one must be in a position to know from where he speaks. "Gip" is always ready to receive and entertain, and never has it been said that she has not been capable to meet all half way—and leave them all friends.

In going the rounds, don't forget to meet Gipsy, and especially her array of feminine beauties. They are all clever. The head of the house, "Gipsy," will let nothing pass toward making life a pleasure.

Just anyone where Gip Shaffer lives.

Miss Minnie Michaels

MISS MICHAELS has the distinction of conducting one of the best establishments in Storyville, where gentlemen of refinement may enjoy the society of ladies of like qualities. One can scarcely try to describe her home. Her cut glass, oil paintings, foreign draperies, etc., have been the admiration of people of the Old World as well as those here.

Minnie is very young, charming, and a high favorite with the boys. She has fifteen ladies of beauty and is contemplating having an annex added to her present home, as her popularity has gained so many friends she has found her quarters too small to accommodate them.

Look for the electric sign, "Michaels."

The Club

Pretty Miss Maud Hartman, who has the high position as President of the Club, is one of those jolly fellows who has the support of all those who have joined the Club.

The Club is always open to visitors, so if you have not had the pleasure of a visit, don't stay too long, as you may miss something.

The Club is one of the few gorgeously furnished places in Storyville and is located so that the most particular person can reach it without being seen. It is under the sole direction of Miss Hartman, whom you will find handsome and highly accomplished, and she has nothing but ladies of her class.

The success and reputation enjoyed by Maud in the past is more than surpassed in her new quarters. She has not overlooked anything that goes to make a place famous as well as very select.

Come and join the Club and meet the members.

Miss Jessie Brown

This is one of the few places where a person can visit and leave with the sole satisfaction of having been in the midst of an array of beautiful women who know how to entertain properly and cleverly the most fastidious gentleman.

It has been Miss Brown's mark in life to make friends and keep them.

She also has a most worthy name of being the mistress over one of the foremost sporting places in the District.

"Jessie" has recently added some very handsome and charming young ladies to her register.

So don't be misled until you have seen "Jessie Brown" and her ladies.

Miss Jessie Orloff

While but a late resident of the District, she has gained more friends than the oldest in the business.

"Jessie" is known as the "idol" of society and club boys, and needs but little introduction, as she is known by the elite from New York to California for her wit and loveliness.

"Orloff" is very winsome, and appeals to everyone, as she is clever and beautiful. Her mansion is handsomely furnished, everything being the best that money could procure.

Aside from the grandeur of her establishment, she has a score of beautiful women, who, with their charming landlady, form a group that can never be forgotten.

The Star Mansion

Annie Ross, the mistress who has guided the "Star" into the limelight of to-day, is one of those jolly good fellows who, once you meet, will never be forgotten. She has, nevertheless, proven herself a grand woman, and has also proven a grand success as madam of her grand "chateau."

An aristocrat once said: "If it were within my power to name kings and queens, I would certainly go out of my way to bestow the title of 'Queen of Smile' on Annie Ross."

Annie is one of the few women who can say she has friends who are friends indeed, and who are with her in all her moods.

Her "Chateau" is grandly equipped and is lacking in nothing, and with her annex, is one of the largest in the district.

Pretty women, good times and sociability has been adopted as the motto of her new and costly home, the Star Mansion.

Why visit the playhouses to see the famous Parisian models portrayed, when one can see the French damsels, Marguerite and Diana? Their names have become known on both continents, because everything goes as it will, and those that cannot be satisfied there must surely be of a queer nature.

They are also known for their singing and dancing.

Miss Grace Lloyd

Of all the landladies of the Tenderloin, none is better known or admired than Grace Lloyd. Grace, as she is commonly called by all who know her, is a woman of very rare attainments and comes of that good old English stock from across the waters.

Grace is regarded as an all-round jolly good fellow, saying nothing about her beauty. She regards life as life and not as a money-making space of time.

Grace also has the distinction of keeping one of the quietest and most elaborately furnished establishments in the city, where an array of beautiful women and good times reign supreme.

Miss Lloyd is also known for the grand and rare collection of Art Tapestry. A visit will convince the hard to believe, and if art in tapestry calls for anything, it will be found here. Insurance on same said to be $5,000—far less than cost.

Olga hails from Florence, Italy, "The Land of the Flowers," and if all the flowers that grow there are as pretty as the Olga Lodi, then the place must be one of natural beauty or a dream—as Olga is really such.

Nowhere will you find a more complete and better conducted "Palace of Sport" than her "Mansion." Olga has let nothing pass her that goes to make life worth living; so while out, you want to give her place a call, if it be only to form her acquaintance, which, I'll assure you, will please you in your meanest moods.
